

Give deaf people same rights as hearing people do: freedom to choose without contract or equipment blocks. VRS made our lives easier, but there are companies trying to take advantage of this technology and making us suffer in return. Total communication access shouldn't be at a price.